The School of Missionary Aviation Technology campus security report is updated on an annual basis. Even though it is not anticipated that SMAT will be involved in any major crime, the Department of Education requires that we have a policy for timely reporting of any major infractions committed by students, staff or visitors on the campus. In this report, SMAT provides information regarding the crimes committed on its campus and policies and procedures designed strengthen security. The guidelines for this report includes current policies and procedures for students and employees to report a crime, to whom a crime is reported, and the school's reporting relationship with local and state police agencies. It should also contain a statement of the drug and alcohol policies, the type and frequency of programs designed to provide information on campus security procedures and policies, information on crime prevention and on sexual assault programs and support and procedures regarding sexual assaults.

This report complies with the requirements of the "Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act." This information is published yearly by September 15 and is available on the SMAT web site at <http://www.smat.edu/admissions/disclosures/>. Paper reports are available upon request from the Administrative Office with reports being received by the Administrative Assistant or Financial Aid Administrator.

The information will be reported on the following form:

Jeanne Clery Act – Annual Campus Report

The School of Missionary Aviation Technology is committed to the safety of its students, staff, faculty and guests. We are concerned and accept the responsibility of implementing security measures that will provide our campus community with a safe secure learning environment.

During each calendar year, SMAT is required by the Department of Education to comply with the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act of 2001. This is now referred to as the Jeanne Clery Act and describes the categories of reportable crimes necessary for SMAT to report. While SMAT has little reportable crime, all post-secondary educational institutions that receive federal student aid are required to report these statistics on an annual basis by October 1. SMAT will make this information available on the SMAT web site <http://www.smat.edu/admissions/disclosures/> under Information Disclosures, by printed copy upon request or by visiting the Office of Postsecondary Education website at <http://ope.ed.gov/security>.

The reported crimes that SMAT is mandated to report are listed in the following table.
