$500 Registration Fee pd _____ by _____

Admission to School of Missionary Aviation Technology is open to all individuals who have the proper background and capacity to benefit from the program and courses taught in our FAA approved Aviation Flight and Aviation Maintenance Technology curricula. SMAT does not discriminate or exclude persons from training on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, religion, political persuasion, handicap, age, weight, height, or marital status.

School of Missionary Aviation Technology is committed to training persons in aviation for the purpose of equipping them for Christian service in missionary aviation. Our students are expected to uphold a high standard of personal and behavioral values in accordance with our Christ-centered environment. For this reason, there are certain standards of conduct to which we ask all students ascribe. These can be found in our school catalog or our student handbook.

Admissions Fees and Costs

- A. Include with this application the $25.00 application fee.
- B. A registration fee of $500 will be required once your application has been approved and you have been accepted into SMAT's program. This registration fee will assure your place in the upcoming class and will be applied to your first tuition installment.
- C. Refer to the catalog for all other information regarding schedules, program content, total costs, refund policies, etc.
- D. Tuition and fees for each payment installment are due and payable according to information found in the catalog.
- E. Students are responsible to arrange for their individual housing needs. The admissions office is available to help you with these arrangements.
